Hey [Name]! Quick question — how many dogs do you have? Just want to make sure I give you the right quote. Most of our customers in [neighborhood] pay around $70/month for worry-free yards. 🐕

It's a question, not a pitch. People respond to questions.

WEDNESDAY (DAY 4)

The Urgency Nudge — Hot Leads Only

Hey [Name]! Heads up — I'm filling up my Monday route for April and wanted to make sure you got a spot if interested. No pressure at all! 😊

Scarcity + no pressure. The "filling up" is real.

SATURDAY (DAY 7)

The Last Touch — Everyone

Hey [Name]! Happy Saturday 🐾 Just checking in one last time from the Paw-ty. If pet waste removal is ever on your radar, we're here! First cleanup is always free. Have a great weekend!

After this: move to monthly nurture. Don't keep texting.

Vet Clinic Partnership Follow-Up

This is potentially MORE valuable than individual sign-ups. One vet = 2-5 referrals/month for years.

Monday — Thank You Email

Hi [Clinic Name] team —

Thank you SO much for having us at Saturday's Paw-ty! It was such a fun event.

I left business cards and a partnership one-pager at the front desk. If you'd like to recommend us to clients, we'd love to work together! We do professional pet waste removal — keeps yards clean and reduces parasite exposure (giardia, roundworm, etc.).

Friday — The $10 Move

Drop off a $10 coffee gift card for front desk staff + 20 more business cards. Front desk staff are the ones who recommend services. Make them like you. Highest-ROI $10 you'll ever spend.

Monthly — Stay Top of Mind

Stop by once/month with fresh cards. Ask "has anyone asked about yard cleanup?" Simple. Consistent. Compounding.

Monthly Nurture Texts (Non-Converters)

One text per month. Stop after 3 months of no response.

Mindset Notes for Jamie

 Follow-up is NOT pushy. These people literally wrote down their phone number at your booth. They want to hear from you.

 Speed wins. The business that follows up within 4 hours gets the customer. Wait until Monday and you lose them.

 Personalize everything. "Hey Jane, loved meeting Biscuit!" beats "Dear valued lead" every single time.

 The vet is the long game. One partnership = 2-5 referrals/month for YEARS. Invest in that relationship.

 Don't take silence personally. People are busy. The seed is planted. They may convert in 2 months when the yard gets bad enough.
