Sunday Night Prep Tasks

OPTIONAL BUT 🔥

☐ Print 50 door hangers on cardstock TJ
File: dashboard/north-county-print-kit.html — 25 sheets Hanger A + 10 sheets Hanger B. Print tonight so they're ready to drop Monday.

☐ Follow up on Paw-ty leads (still in 48-hr window!) TJ
Paw-ty was YESTERDAY. Hot leads are going cold. Text them tonight while you're still fresh in their mind.

☐ Check Facebook group approvals before bed JAMIE
Some groups approve instantly. If any are approved, read the rules — some have "Business Wednesday" only or require intro posts.

☐ Set alarm for 6:45 AM Monday JAMIE
Posts go live at 7-8 AM for max morning traffic. Florissant parents check FB while their kids are getting ready for school.

💡 Why tonight matters: Dog Doody Defenders served this exact territory and is now gone. Their customers are looking for someone RIGHT NOW. A post in Florissant this week might be the FIRST time any of those 75-150 orphaned customers even know we exist. First come, first served.
