2. Facebook Messenger Outreach Script

Hey [Name]! 🙌

>

It's Darius from TuffShed — hope you're doing well!

>

I know we talked a while back about getting you a [shed/workshop/extra storage space] and I wanted to give you a heads up before I tell everybody else:

>

This Friday and Saturday (March 14-15) I'm running a weekend event at the lot — 18 months same as cash financing. Zero interest if you pay it off in 18 months.

>

It's honestly the best deal I've had this year. Figured I'd let you know first since you were already looking.

>

If you want to swing by the lot and check things out, no pressure at all. I've got dozens out here you can walk through in person.

>

Either way, hope you're doing good! Let me know if you have any questions. 🙌

If they respond with interest:

Awesome! Yeah it's a really solid deal. What day works better for you — Friday or Saturday? I'll make sure I'm out here when you come by so I can walk you through everything.

If they respond with hesitation:

Totally understand! No rush at all. The event is just Friday and Saturday, but even if the timing doesn't work out, we've always got good financing options. Just wanted to make sure you knew about it. 🙌

3. Call Script (When They Answer)

Opening:

"Hey [Name], it's Darius over at TuffShed — how's it going?"

(Let them respond, be human about it)

"Good, good. Hey I won't take up a lot of your time, I just wanted to give you a quick heads up. I know we talked a while back about getting you set up with a [shed/workshop/storage building]..."

The Pitch:

"So this Friday and Saturday — March 14th and 15th — I'm doing a weekend event at the lot. The big deal is 18 months same as cash. So basically, you get the shed, and as long as you pay it off within 18 months, there's zero interest. It's probably the best deal I've had all year."

"We've also got some other options — fixed rates as low as 9.99%, and even a rent-to-own program where they don't even check your credit. So there's really something for everybody."

"Plus free delivery and setup — that never changes."

Invite:

"I'd love for you to come walk the lot this weekend. I've got a bunch of sheds out here you can actually go inside and check out. No pressure at all — just come take a look and see what works for you."

Handling Objections:

"I'm not really ready yet..."

"I totally get that. Here's the thing though — this 18 months same as cash deal is only this weekend. So even if you're not 100% ready, it might be worth locking in the deal now while the financing is this good. But either way, no pressure. I just didn't want you to miss it."

"It's too expensive..."

"I hear you. That's actually why this deal is so great — 18 months with zero interest makes the monthly payment way more manageable. And if you want even longer terms, we've got plans that go up to 120 months. Let me run some numbers for you when you come by — I think you'll be surprised how affordable it is."

"I need to talk to my wife/husband first..."

"Oh for sure, absolutely. Bring 'em with you! Honestly it's better when you're both here because you can walk through the sheds together and figure out exactly what works for your yard. The lot's open Friday and Saturday — whatever day works for both of you."

Close:

"Alright well I don't want to keep you. If you have any questions at all, just text or call me — 636-354-7406. I'll be at the lot all weekend. Hope to see you out here!"
